

Prestigious 'National Education Leadership Award' to Mangalayatan University VC Prof. S.C. Jain

Aligarh, 19 February, 2013

Mangalayatan University Vice-Chancellor Prof. S.C. Jain has been awarded with prestigious 'National Education Leadership Award' by India's No. 1 Business News Channel ET-Now. He received this honour in a colourful event attended by the Business and Education icons of India at Mumbai.

ET-Now along with 'Business School Affaire' and 'World Education Congress' constituted an Independent Jury to find out the educational gems of India. After thorough examination of numerous applications by the dedicated team, Prof. Jain was selected for his outstanding contribution in higher education. This honour was given for his exemplary achievements in leadership, development and

Prof. S.C. Jain, Vice-Chancellor, Mangalayatan University with 'National Education Leadership Award' by ET-Now Business News Channel.

Industry interface of University. Shri Jonathan Peters, Founder, Stars of the Industry Group and Dr. R.L. Bhatia, Project Director, B-School Affaire congratulated Prof. Jain.

Prof. Jain has more than 35 years of distinguished teaching and administrative experience. Prior to join Mangalayatan University, he served at IIT-Rorkee for more than three decades. He initiated several new projects and programs for nurturing young talent. Last year he was awarded with 'Dewang Mehta Business School Award'.